

Cassidy Acosta

Outreach Specialist

Cassidy@harbageconsulting.com

Cassidy Acosta serves as an Outreach Specialist, providing educational outreach to stakeholders of Cal MediConnect and the Coordinated Care Initiative in San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

Before joining Harbage, Cassidy worked with people with mental health disabilities at Disability Rights California (DRC), the state's protection and advocacy organization. During their tenure at DRC, they facilitated trainings in psychiatric facilities, state hospitals, and in the community on a variety of rights-based topics such as Medi-Cal, Social Security benefits, conservatorship, discrimination in housing and employment, and self-advocacy skills.

Cassidy has presented advocacy trainings at numerous conferences throughout the state, targeted toward both service providers and clients, including the University of California Mental Health Cultural Competency Summit, the California Association of Social Rehabilitation Agencies Conference, the National Alliance on Mental Illness Conference, and the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health's Multicultural Mental Health Conference.

Cassidy has an undergraduate degree in psychology and social behavior with a minor in women's studies from the University of California, Irvine. In their downtime, they enjoy spending time with their spouse and two pets, collecting vinyl, and photography.