Maryanne Corbin serves as the Executive Assistant to the firm's President, Hilary Haycock, and the Vice President of Strategic Communications & Public Affairs, Carri Ziegler.

Prior to joining Harbage Consulting, Maryanne served as an executive assistant for Adventist Health within the financial sector of the organization. In that role, she assisted in the implementation of a corporate purchase card pilot program, a new financial internship program, and also served on the California International Marathon committee.

Maryanne also previously worked for HumanGood, where she assisted the affordable housing department. Within that role she assisted in the implementation of the new hospitality program for thirty-two affordable housing communities, and managed an affordable housing Wishlist Program. While at HumanGood, she served the planning committee for the Annual HumanGood Foundation Golf Classic.

Maryanne has also worked as an event coordinator at a winery, where she developed great attention to detail and passion for event planning. A role in the clinical environment at the California College of Ayurveda led her on the path to pursue a career in the health care field.

Maryanne received a Bachelor's degree in Communication Studies from San Jose State University with a minor in Childhood Development. In her free time, Maryanne enjoys traveling, sports, the great outdoors, live music, salsa dancing, and cooking.
