Junior Policy Consultant

Sarah@harbageconsulting.com

Sarah Clair is a Junior Policy Consultant on Harbage Consulting's Behavioral Health team. Her experience stems from various internships in both the California and Nevada Legislatures. Sarah is interested in exploring alternative solutions to the opioid addiction crisis.

Sarah graduated from the University of Nevada earning a Bachelor of Science in Human Development and Family Studies with a minor in Addiction Treatment Services. While at Nevada, Sarah spent her time volunteering with NevadaCares, an organization that educates students about sexual assault, domestic violence, and dating violence on campus, in addition to helping raise awareness about interpersonal violence within the community. A native of Elk Grove, Sarah spends her time with her twin sister and her dog Hazel, and enjoys doing yoga.
